Psychodrama (“heart work”) is a core component of the BreakThrough weekend. Participants will explore the theory behind psychodrama, learn how to facilitate by leading others in the process, and cultivate their leadership skills.

Why take this training?

- You are a BreakThrough graduate who wants to learn more about the weekend process and to re-experience a powerful aspect of the BreakThrough weekend (BreakThrough alums are eligible to take this training six months after their weekend).
- You are in a BreakThrough Weekend Personal Growth Group and want to bring skills back to your group.
- Your BreakThrough Weekend Personal Growth Group wants to attend as a group to have another meaningful experience together.
- You are interested in staffing a BreakThrough weekend (completion of this training is recommended for anyone wishing to staff a BreakThrough weekend).
- You have already taken the training but want more practice.
