

November 2018

Dear Victories Community,

Every man who comes to a Victories weekend has a story. His story reaches beyond himself—to his family, his community, his workplace.

Men come to us for many reasons and with different experiences, but the outcomes for all men are similar. Men want to be engaged fathers, connected partners, confident and authentic men. With the support of the Victories community, men find a place where they can be their most integrated selves, where all of them is welcome.

Where is Victories Today?

Since 1985, Victories has evolved into a dynamic community of men and women who are engaged and passionate about the work we do. In Victories, we value the importance of conversation and communication. We value vulnerability and accountability. We give men the space to be their best selves, and as a result, their relationships deepen. Here at Victories, we believe in sharing our stories, in listening to another's.

Help Victories Continue Its Mission!

To keep doing our work, we need your financial commitment. Your donation helps us do what we do best:

- Give men a space to heal and grow.
- Help men build stronger connections with other men.
- Provide men the tools to be engaged partners and fathers.
- Show men that vulnerability and emotion are strengths.
- Build communities where all people feel safe and welcome.

As you make your end-of-year giving plans, please remember your Victories story and make a donation to support Victories in its continuing mission to strengthen our communities.

From My Heart,

Ron Rooth
Board President

P.S. We're excited to tell you that our new website should go live by the end of the year! More to come!
